The implementation of the curriculum is through a three tier process. The college council is at the apex and monitors the activities and implementation of curriculum through CLMC and DLMC. The committees monitor the optimal distribution and allocation of syllabi, conduct of internal exams, uploading of marks of continuous evaluation. Regular feedback is taken from the students and parents through PTA meetings and tutorial meetings. This is taken as an opportunity to address the challenges and grievances of the students.

3.2 - Innovation Ecosystem

3.2.1 - Institution has created an ecosystem for innovations and has initiatives for creation and transfer of knowledge

Being a campus situated in a remote area of Alappay, the HEI has limited resources when compared to other campuses in cities andtowns. However, the academic community of the college makes use of the available resources to its maximum. Knowledge transfer in the campus happens mainly in the classrooms where teachers and students enter into vibrant academic discussions and debates. The clubs and Cells meant for developing academic and non-academic skills of the students also play vital role in catering to knowledge transfer and research. The college has excellent teaching faculty members who take utmost care to update themselves. Under Research Cell, webinars are organised on research methodology which helps the transfer of contemporary knowledge systems. The extension activities, cultural, National and International day celebrations help the students participate in various programmes, mingle with the neighbourhood and mould themselves into better individuals. The clubs and cells impart various streams of knowledge into the student community. The NSS, NCC wings play vital role in creating and transferring alternate streams of knowledge and making the student community perceive the surroundings and human life with compassion and humanism. Skill Development training programmes conducted by ASAP Kerala (Additional Skill Acquisition Programme) focus on developing job acquisition skills among the students.

3.4 - Extension Activities

3.4.1 - Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community, sensitizing students to social issues, for their holistic development, and impact thereof during the year

Extension activities undertaken by academic institutions strengthen the capacity of the student community to reach out to the practical realities of life, build up compassion to the surrounding life and mould their selves to better citizens of the future. Realizing such potentials, the HEI has taken enthusiastic measures to ensure their participation in activities extending to the areas outside the campus. The palliative care unit working under the guidance of the NSS wing ensures helping hands to the geriatric population within the panchayat where the college is situated. The initiatives of Nature Club, Zoology and Botany departments extend towards the outer surroundings of the campus, mainly focussing on the conservation of the local environment. In 2022, various clubs initiated extension activities related to HIV Aids awareness, drug abuse, plastic pollution etc. The NSS/NCC wings of the HEI play pivotal role in sensitizing the students about the significance of reaching out to the neighborhood. The clean-up drives organised by the NSS, NCC units facilitated the waste disposal and cleaning of several public areas of the panchayat and the municipality, including roads, hospitals etc. They also undertake awareness campaigns throughout the Chennam Pallipuram panchayat to educate the local public about various matters.

GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The governance of the institution is reflective of and in tune with the vision and mission of the institution

NSS College, Cherthala was built envisaging the upliftment of the rural population. The institution maintains this vision in all the aspects of governance. Each initiative undertaken by the institution reflects this vision and mission. The admission process gives due recognition to the socially and economically backward pupils. The institution gives support to the youth who are often first generation learners, drawn from rural, remote, backward circumstances. We have a good library with easy student access, industry internships, mandatory projects and a system of centralised, rigorous internal assessment to uplift the academic experience and enhance the learning potential of our students. In spite of its remoteness, the college has successfully provided computer facilities, labs, and a few ICT enabled classrooms. Regular seminars, webinars and workshops expose the young minds to all latest developments. Equal importance is given to nourish the non-academic talents of the students. In the official matters too, the institution follows discipline and coherence. The governance of the institution directly comes under the management. Financial aid is provided by the government, the management and the PTA. All the official and academic decisions are taken by respective committees headed by the Principal. Under the leadership of the head of the institution and the college council, various decisions are finalised and they are managed and implemented by respective committees.

The decisions are forwarded to the college management for further necessary actions. Constructive suggestions of the students represented through College Union are also given due importance. There are various Committees constituted to manage different institutional activities. Under the college council, decisions pertaining to the constitution of all the committees including IQAC, RUSA etc are ratified. All the committees, curricular, co-curricular clubs and cells and their representatives are chosen and decisions are ratified in the college council.

Discipline Committee, CLMC, Grievance Redressal Cell, Anti-Ragging Cell and all the other committees and cells are connected to the centralised system, yet work as independent bodies within the HEI.

6.3.5 - Institutions Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non- teaching staff

The institution deems the teaching and non-teaching staff members as backbone of the working environment. It also considers the frequent evaluation of their activities as mandatory for the multidimensional development of the institution. Two different patterns are used to evaluate the performance of the teachers as well as the non-teaching staff. Feedback system is used to analyse the effort put in by the teachers. Feedbacks are taken from the students on a regular basis. The tutorial meetings conducted on the last working day of every month gives the students opportunity to provide feedbacks on the academic and mentoring levels of each teacher. These feedbacks are accepted as valid statements which are further put to analysis by each department for self-appraisal. The institution also takes an annual feedback from students which also is given due importance. The teachers also provide feedbacks to the head of the institution regarding various academic and professional matters. The data pertaining to Performance Based Appraisal System (PBAS) which is the major criterion for promotion is regularly verified by the committee constituted by the IQAC. The regular meetings with non-teaching staff helps the Principal to evaluate their performance and understand their grievances. Instructions are given for their improvement. 7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

When our founder Acharya Bharatha Kesari Padmabhooshan Sri Mannathu Padmanabhan set out to revolutionise, he chose education as his tool. With His vision, the Nair Service Society has founded colleges in very remote, rural areas of Kerala with the noble purpose of providing quality education to the underprivileged. The institution gives support to the youth who are often first generation learners, drawn from rural, remote, backward socio - economic circumstances. The distinctiveness lies in the fact that the HEI outwins all the remoteness which become hindrances in the path of knowledge. We have a good library with easy student access, industry internships, mandatory projects under the guidance of highly qualified teachers, a system of centralised, rigorous internal assessment all uplift the academic experience and enhance the learning potential of our students. In spite of its remoteness, the college has successfully provided computer facilities, labs, and a few ICT enabled classrooms. Regular seminars, webinars and workshops ensure that our students are abreast of all latest developments.

Annual students' election, clubs/cells and other academic and co-curricular bodies cater to the overall development of the students. Our tutorial system support the students and ensures emotional, legal and moral security. ICC, Councelling Cell also facilitate their security. NSS and NCC activities develop discipline and social commitment. Students are well represented in intercollegiate, University competitions. Thus, students overcome the challenges of their background and emerge confident to face the world to carve a niche for themselves.
